A Cornishman by birth, he was a choral scholar at Truro Cathedral where he also studied the organ with John Winter. He was Organist and Director of Music at All Saints' Hove, and Director of Music at St Christopher's School, Hove for nearly thirty years, with the choirs regularly performing on national radio and television. He is also known as a theatre organist and was regularly heard on BBC Radio 2's The Organist Entertains.

The theme for this Festival is not only to highlight the wonderful local talent we have in Mid Sussex but also to design a programme of music that should satisfy all tastes and all ages. A Festival is also a great opportunity to take a step out of your comfort zone and try something new, so please do come and join us for what promises to be a very special week of music!
